First, at 6 pm, there will be a presentation in English by Diamond Manager Jayne from the UK. Jayne is one of Forever's most popular speakers, and she also happens to love Scandinavia and our Scandinavian spirit. Then, at 8 pm, there will be a presentation in Swedish by Diamond Sapphire Manager Jeanette Magnusson. Jeanette is a highly valued leader who shares her passion and coaches others to success. Arrive at the Grand Hotel in good time; seats are limited and everyone is welcome – but remember, it's first come, first served.

Jayne Leach

Diamond Manager

Jayne really loves to come to Scandinavia and meet our FBOs. She thinks the spirit we have here is fantastic – and we couldn't agree more. We think our spirit is the best in the world! As if being a Diamond Manager isn't enough, Jayne is one of the top lecturers in the world of Forever. Don't miss the opportunity to listen to Jayne's business presentation at the famous Grand Hôtel in Stockholm, Tuesday 7 May at 18:00 pm. It may be a once in a lifetime

Jeanette Magnusson

Diamond Sapphire Manager

As a young girl, Jeanette Magnusson didn't want to be a ballerina or a vet: she wanted to be a millionaire. That may seem like an odd dream for a child, but growing up in a family with three siblings and a single mother who worked three extra jobs just to break even, it felt like a good idea. Today, Jeanette is one of the Forever world's biggest stars, and a tremendously valued leader who coaches others to success with a big heart and a wealth of knowledge and experience. Jeanette will be giving a business presentation in Swedish at the Grand Hotel, Tuesday 7 May at 20:00 pm.
